

Tribal Chairman Jeff Haozous on his reelection:

“I am grateful to the voters of the Fort Sill Apache Tribe for electing me to an eighth term as Tribal Chairman. I am honored that you continue trust me to fight for our people and to move our tribe forward.

In my new term, I am committed to keep working to restore our tribe to its rightful place in our homeland, to further develop our tribe’s economy, to support our educational programs, and to continue cultivating our cultural renaissance.

I look forward working together with our tribe’s leadership and our members to accomplish these things for the benefit of all of our people.”
